

NSS Volunteers Organise School Supply Distribution Drive for Orphaned Children in Kolkata

Kolkata, February 7:

The National Service Scheme (NSS) volunteers of Kamala Devi SohanRaj Singhvi Jain College of Education conducted a community outreach programme on Saturday aimed at supporting underprivileged and orphaned children at Sujata Child NGO, situated in the Belgachia area near R.G. Kar Medical College and Hospital.

The initiative was undertaken as part of the institution's ongoing commitment to social responsibility and community development. Faculty members, along with B.Ed third-semester students, actively participated in the programme, reinforcing the importance of service-oriented learning.

The volunteers arrived at the NGO premises at 2:00 PM and carried out the activity until 3:30 PM. Approximately 40 children benefited from the initiative. Essential educational materials including notebooks, pens, pencils, erasers, sharpeners, scales, pencil pouches, school bags, and sketch pens were distributed. In addition, refreshments such as biscuits, cakes, and fruits were provided.

Beyond the distribution of supplies, the volunteers interacted with the children through meaningful conversations and engaging activities, creating a supportive and encouraging environment. The beneficiaries expressed their appreciation and joy upon receiving the assistance.

The programme embodied the NSS motto, "Not Me, But You," highlighting the values of selfless service and social commitment. Such initiatives play a crucial role in sensitizing students to societal challenges while promoting empathy, cooperation, and civic responsibility.

The outreach programme concluded successfully, leaving a positive and lasting impact on both the children and the volunteers.
